

Conference

Heritage in Practice · Conflicting Concepts and Changing Power Relations

18.-20. November 2015 · University of Cologne

Panel on

Cultural Landscapes and Historic Urban Landscapes – The impact of new concepts

18.-19.11.2015

Venue: Morphomata lecture room, Weyertal 59

Wednesday, 18 November 2015

14:00-14:20	Heinz Felber / Khaled Noby Mohamed: Opening remarks and Introduction to panel
14:20-15:00	Ian R. Simpson: Oil and pearls in nature heritage practice and theory
15:00-15:40	Divya Tolia-Kelly: What is Natural Heritage in the Anthropocene? The challenges in an epoch of cultural and natural erasure
15:40-16:00	Coffee break
16:00-16:40	Koen Van Balen: Research and practice interaction in preserving and managing World Heritage Sites. Experiences from Petra (Jordan) and Cuenca and Susudel (Ecuador)
16:40-17:20	Antonia Davidovic-Walther: Difficult heritage. The Berlin Tempelhof airfield and forced labour in Nazi times – ethnography of an excavation

Thursday, 19. November 2015

9:00-9:40	Manon Istasse: Living in a World Heritage site: various forms of heritage in the Fez medina
9:40-10:20	Tine Trumpp: How do we create the future of our past? (Mega-)urban heritage governance in Delhi
10:20-11:00	Coffee break & refreshments
11:00-11:40	Alexandra Parrs: Ankh, picnics and heritage: the Coptic museum and the community
11:40-12:20	Heinz Felber: Introducing new concepts - Cultural Landscapes and Historic Urban Landscapes
12:20-12:50	Final discussion
Afternoon	Visit to Exponatec, International Trade Fair for Museums, Conservation and Heritage

18:30 Dinner at Belgischer Hof